Art centre exhibits to May 7

TWO new exhibitions of work by Scott MacLeod and by Leslie Sorochan look at our journey through life from two very different — but very complementary — points of view, the male and female. They are up to May 7 at St. Thomas-Elgin Public Art Centre (www.stepac.ca). There's an opening 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. March 24. Located at 301 Talbot St., the centre is open 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesdays and Wednesdays, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Thursdays and Fridays, noon to 4 p.m. Saturdays and noon to 3 p.m. Sundays. Closed Mondays. Free admission. 631-4040.
